Dear Old Friend Santa Claus.—Christ-mas is here again. I am a little girl of five and a good girl, so please bring me a doll and go-cart, plane, and stool, and chair. I won't ask for more, as I have three more sisters and one brother for you to share with. So good-bye, ELLEN BAGLEY.

Dear Santa Claus.—Please bring me a large engine, or a cyclone wagon, a drum, and horn, merry-go-round, music-hox, loop-the-loop, and a turtle, a lot of fireworks, and don't forget to fill my stockings, and I guess that will be enough.

From your little boy,
HAROLID LAWRENCE,
1514 West Broad Etreet.

Dear Santa Claus,—I am glad to write to you, for I want to tell you about baby Ralph. I am sorry for him. He goes todding around here barefooted, and he hasn't any shoes or stockings either. The doctors told us to let him so barefooted to make him "tough," so he wouldn't have the croup, and I wish you would bring him some shoes and stockings. I will lend him one of my stockings to hang up. Please bring me a train and railstand track, lots of candy, nuts, and raisins. Good-bye. Your friend,

Dear Santa Claus,—Nease bring me candy and lots of things, and a train wit a street car hitched on to it. Good-bye, Your friend, ROB ROY RIJURDY. P. S.-I send you my love. I am a good by.

Dear Old Santa,—I am going to whete to you now. You must bring me a bed, wardrobe, gloves, story book, paper dolls, and just one more thing, old Santa, a big dolly. And now comes the good things, Bring me some candy, oranges, apples, raisins, and some fire-works, for 1 love to shoot them, if I am a littl cglrl.

Good-bye, old Santa,
